Student Organizations

- 91.7 The Edge-WSUW
  91.7 The Edge is a student run, non-commercial educational radio station providing the opportunity for students to gain professional and relevant experience in a variety of fields. (News & Media)

- Active Minds
  Active Minds is a nonprofit student-led mental health and advocacy group. Students in this organization will work together to create a welcoming and positive environment on campus through campus-wide events and weekly meetings. (Health & Fitness)

- ACTIVE Student Organization
  ACTIVE stands for Athletics, Coaching, Teaching, Involvement, Volunteering, and Education. They are an organization out of the Health, Human Performance, and Recreation major. Their mission is to promote career and professional development opportunities for students interested in health, sport, physical education, human performance, recreation, coaching and other related career fields. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Actuarial Club
  Organization for students to learn, network, and develop skills related to the actuarial field. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Admira La Musica de las Americas
  Admira La Musica de las Americas (ALMA) is a dance organization that uses the Hispanic culture among others to promote awareness and expression. (Arts & Performance)

- Adult Student Connection Organization
  The Adult Student Connection Organization (ASC) is to support non-traditional students in completing their college degree by creating educational awareness, campus awareness, diversity, and unity. They are dedicated in making the connections with UW-Whitewater’s environment socially, emotionally, physically, and intellectually for the members of ASC to continue their road of success. (Culture & Diversity)

- Advertising Association
  The Whitewater Advertising Association (WAA) is a student organization all about helping students get more out of their advertising through networking, hosting conferences, having workshops, and simply enjoying the company of others interested in advertising. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- AIGA
  To unite, educate, and inform Graphic Design students in techniques and information pertaining to their career and profession; To assist the Art Department in appropriate service projects as requested; To encourage the value of an art education throughout the campus and community. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Airsoft Club
  Whitewater Airsoft Club is an organization where airsoft enthusiasts can come together to enrich the greater airsoft community. This will be accomplished through respect on and off the field, a focus on teamwork and dedication to learning new skills. This organization is meant to help grow the airsoft community as a whole as well as the individual player. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Alloy
  Alloy is UW-Whitewater Metal Student Co-op. They work in Non-Ferrous metal to make small sculpture and body adornment. They sponsor visiting artists, visit art museums, attend SNAG (Society North American Goldsmiths) and have artwork submitted to local and national galleries. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- American Association of University Women
  The American Association of University Women (AAUW) is the nation’s leading voice promoting equity and education for women and girls. Since founded in 1881, AAUW members have examined and taken positions on the fundamental issues of the day — educational, social, economic, and political. You already are a member if you are a student at UW-Whitewater. When officially joined as an e-student affiliate member the benefits begin! Free membership Scholarship opportunities, Leadership conferences, Education & Career development, $mart $tart Salary and negotiation workshop. Join A National community of empowered women! (Culture & Diversity)

- American Marketing Association
The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater AMA offers members an array of professional and community-based experiential learning opportunities designed to create career-ready graduates with strong character, ethical reasoning, and the willingness to work for the benefit of others. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- American Psychological Society Student Caucus

- American Sign Language Club
  American Sign Language Club focuses on helping students who have a passion to learning sign language. They focus and learn through activities, weekly events, lessons and fun field trips. The organization also brings in deaf presenters like students to come and present or help others learn about deaf culture. (Culture & Diversity)

- American String Teachers Association
  This organization aims to train future string educators and provide opportunities to help students gain necessary experiences for their chosen career path. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Army Reserve Officer Training Corps
  Army ROTC is a program that teaches its members on how to become a future leader in the United States Army. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Aspiring Educators of Wisconsin
  This organization is comprised of students considering on becoming future educators. Their meetings consist of information of current education topics, tests that future educators need to take, preparation tools, College of Education, activities to be used in classroom and anything else education related. They were formerly known as St WEA. (Volunteer & Service)

- ASSE-Student Safety Organization

- Association for Computing Machinery-Women
  Celebrating, Supporting, and Informing Women in Computing! They are here to support women currently pursuing a career in technology and to help grow the presence of women in this field. Their purpose is: The Chapter is organized and will be operated exclusively for educational and scientific purposes to promote the following: a. An increased knowledge of and greater interest in the contributions of women in the science, design, development, construction, languages, management, and applications of modern computing. b. Improvement of the learning and working environments of women in computing. c. Increased recruitment and retention of women in computing throughout the pipeline including activities for girls in K-12, undergraduate and graduate students, and professionals. d. A means of communication between persons having an interest in computing and women in computing. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Association for Higher Education Advancement and Development
  The purpose of the organization shall be: 1. To provide social, professional, and academic programs, activities, and support for master's students within the Higher Education Leadership Program. 2. To encourage community and collaboration among students, alumni, and professionals in the field of higher education and student affairs at the University of Wisconsin – Whitewater. 3. To promote academic excellence, professional development, and social networking among members. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Association for Information Technology Professionals
  AITP provides students in technology related fields of study a place to further their knowledge outside of the classroom through weekly meetings with speakers from the industry. The organization also provides a rich social atmosphere and a chance to network with peers/professionals in a more relaxed environment. Members and non-members are able to participate in the Hack-A-Thon: A hack-a-thon is an event where programmers meet for a specified time frame to do collaborative computer programming. A hack-a-thon refers to a specific time when many people come together to hack on what they want to, how they want to – with little to no restrictions on direction or goal of the programming. Participants code, network, and have a blast! Additionally, members will be able to participate in the AITP banquet. Students should join our organization because they will be able to speak face to face with possible future employers. In addition to that it looks great on a resume for everyone, not just IT people. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Association for Operation Management
  APICS is a student organization for Operations and Supply Chain Management and related majors. The organization provides networking opportunities with professionals and colleagues. Activities include bi-weekly meetings, tours of local businesses, and information regarding APICS certification exams. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Association of Black Psychologists
  The Association of Black Psychologists sees its mission and destiny as the liberation of the African Mind, empowerment of the African Character, and enlivenment and illumination of the African Spirit. The Association is organized to operate exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including but not limited to: promoting and advancing the profession of African Psychology influencing and affecting social change; and developing programs whereby psychologists of African descent (hereafter known as Black Psychologists) can assist in solving problems of Black communities and other ethnic groups. (Academics, Honors & Research)

- Aviation Club
Believers in Christ: Set Free
Believers in Christ: Set Free emphasizes a weekly Bible study for all students that encourages through personal interaction with the Bible, educates on the practical morality and character that the Bible describes, and engages people's hearts and minds concerning the Gospel and eternity. (Faith-Related)

Bella Soul
This organization was created to help individuals with chronic illness, physical disabilities and disease who attend college to connect to those who are in similar situations to share advice and techniques on how they take on the stressors of college. (Health & Fitness)

Best Buddies
Best Buddies matches people with intellectual disabilities with college students and creates one-to-one friendships. In the past, individuals with an intellectual disability often didn't have the opportunity to have friends outside their own isolated environment. When a college student becomes a Peer Buddy, he or she offers their Buddy the chance to explore friendship and all it offers. (Volunteer & Service)

Beta Alpha Psi
Beta Alpha Psi is a national scholastic and professional organization for Financial Information students and professionals. The primary objective of the organization is to encourage and give recognition to scholastic and professional excellence in the business information field. This includes promoting the study and practice of accounting, finance and information systems; providing opportunities for self-development, service and association among members and practicing professionals; and encouraging a sense of ethical, social, and public responsibility. At our UW-Whitewater chapter, we primarily focus on learning more about public accounting firms on the international, national, regional and local levels. Over the course of the semester, we have about 7-8 professional meeting with different accounting firms talking about topics applicable to the growth of our members. Along with the professional meetings, we also have a speed networking event for our members have a chance to talk to more than 10 firms all in one night. Additionally, Beta Alpha Psi offers 3-4 office tours each semester. On these office tours our members are able to get exposure to the workplaces they may end up in just a couple of months. Our chapter takes great pride in creating opportunities for our members to meet and network with the representatives of over 25 public accounting firms. (Academic, Honors & Research)

Beta Beta Beta
This National Biology Honors Society helps members gain knowledge, apply for research grants or scholarships, and more. We are a group of students who thrive to pursue a career in biology. (Academic, Honors & Research)

Billiards Club
The Billiards Club is open to all student on campus who have an interest and wanting to increase their skills in Billiards. (Athletics, Club Sports, & Intramurals)

Black Student Union
The Black Student Union associate themselves for the purpose of motivating and retaining students on campus, coordinate activities to strengthen cultural awareness; provide assistance to the development and utilization of their skills to the extent that they can become a professionally organized body of students on campus to deal with social, cultural and educational problems. (Culture & Diversity)

Business and Marketing Education Association
BMEA is an organization to help future educators develop personal connections with other educators. This group strives to prepare future educators for teaching. (Academic, Honors & Research)

Campus Ministries International

Caring and Resourceful Educators (CARE)

Catholic Student Coalition
The organization have their own Campus Ministry Center located at 344 N. Prairie St. (Faith-Related)

Chemistry Club
This club is for anyone with a love of learning about science while having a ridiculous amount of fun! They put on demonstrations to help children discover science, do extreme demo's for themselves, and have a great time! (Academic, Honors & Research)
• Chi Sigma Iota

CSI is an honorary organization for students who are pursuing their master's in the Counselor Education Program. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Chinese Language Club

Chinese Language Club is an organization that allows people to experience different aspects of the Chinese culture through games, cooking, presentations and more (no need to know how to speak Chinese). (Culture & Diversity)

• Chinese Students and Scholars Association

This organization urges Chinese students and scholars to unite together in order to benefit their well-being as well as the well-being of other students on campus. Dimensions of the organization include traditional festival celebrations, resources sharing, and culture appreciation. (Culture & Diversity)

• Circle K International

What do bananas, yard work, Spring Fling, community service, and making new friends in Whitewater and beyond have in common? They are all aspects to Circle K International. Circle K is a volunteer organization dedicated to service, leadership, and fellowship on campus, our communities, and in the world. It is the largest collegiate service organization in the United States. They are the collegiate version of Kiwanis, or Key Club for high school. The chapter in Whitewater does a wide variety of service projects from visiting the elderly to making dog toys to donating books for children. (Volunteer & Service)

• Coalition Against Sexual and Interpersonal Violence

• College Democrats

The UW-Whitewater College Democrats are working to promote progressive values throughout the state of Wisconsin! (Politically Affiliated)

• College Republicans

They are a young group of conservatives working towards a better future. They believe that government isn't a one size fits all like the establishment in Washington wants people to believe. They received a top ten school organization in 1993. (Politically Affiliated)

• Colleges Against Cancer

They are partnered with the American Cancer Society. They host the Relay for Life event on campus every year. (Volunteer & Service)

• Collegiate Association for Musical Performers

This organization provides necessary education and information on how to work in a competitive performance setting. Monthly meetings, lectures and practice auditions provides an environment that would improve networking between peers, forge working relationships and instruct on how to act in a professional environment. (Arts & Performance)

• Collegiate DECA

They are UW-Whitewater’s Collegiate DECA chapter – a very active business organization open to students from all academic programs/majors. They give their members opportunities to engage in numerous social and community service activities and promote professional development. They also participate in DECA competitions at the regional, state, and national level and have been named the Wisconsin “Chapter of the Year” for four consecutive years (and counting!). They welcome all new members and encourage them to contact any of the officers for more information. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Collegiate Entrepreneurs' Organization

Collegiate Entrepreneurs’ Organization (CEO) is the premier entrepreneurship network with chapters on university campuses across North America and beyond. CEO currently supports entrepreneurship on over 200 chapters in over 43 states. CEO’s mission is to inform, support and inspire college students to be entrepreneurial and seek opportunity through enterprise creation. With a diverse entrepreneurial community and global network, CEO provides student entrepreneurs with opportunities, events, chapter activities, and conferences to help start businesses. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Communicating Health in Practice

Also known as CHIP, the organization focuses on helping students with networking opportunities for those interested in pursuing a health-related career after graduation. Industry professionals are regularly solicited to provide input via speaking at meetings and assisting with potential internship opportunities. Connecting student members with relevant professional organizations, including attendance at professional conferences, will be a primary goal. (Academics, Honors & Research)

• Creative and Resourceful Educators
Our mission is to advocate for the community of young children and their families through philanthropy, community service, and education. Their organization is open to UW-Whitewater students and community members. They are confident, competent, caring, and resourceful educators. They strive for leadership and standards of excellence through networking. (Hobbies & Interests)

- CRU
  CRU is a worldwide movement of students who strive to grow and learn together in Christ. Their mission is that each person on campus has the chance to know someone who truly loves and follows Jesus. (Faith-Related)

- Cultural Affairs Committee
  The Cultural Affairs Committee is a group of students, faculty, and community members all united under a common interest of the performing arts. Throughout the year they work to experience the performing arts by touring other venues, hosting speakers, attending shows, and most importantly helping book 40% of the season at their very own Young Auditorium. (Arts & Performance)

- Dance Company
  The UW-W Dance Company is dedicated to the promotion of dance throughout the campus and community. As an advocate for dance, the Company creates opportunities for UW-W students to gain an appreciation for the cultural and artistic forms of dance. These opportunities may include: attending professional dance company performances in the region, dancing in classes or choreography by guest artists, performing and/or choreographing for the Emerging Choreographer’s Concert or other Dance Company produced concerts and receiving support for attendance at dance conferences such as the American College Dance Association annual conference. (Arts & Performance)

- Dead Intellectuals Society
  An organization that is focused on hearing the students opinion on a variety of topics and issues. Intersect in a plethora of disciplines through lively conversations and discover how ideas intersect. (Culture & Diversity)

- Delta Alpha Pi International Honors Society-Gamma Sigma Chapter
  Honors Society for students with a registered disability through CSD. Undergraduate students must have a minimum of 24 credits and 3.10 GPA. Graduate students must have at least 18 credits and a 3.30 GPA. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Delta Omicron - Omicron Phi
  Delta Omicron is an International Professional Co-Ed Music Fraternity, open to all music majors/minors. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Delta Phi Alpha
  This organization is not a fraternity or sorority related group. They are the German Honors Society. (Culture & Diversity)

- Disability Advocacy Awareness Coalition
  Their vision is to assist current and potential students who fall under the DREAMers category. In part, a DREAMer refers to an undocumented youth of good moral character, graduated from a US high school or an equivalent education (GED), arrived to the US as a minor, and has lived long enough in the US to assimilate the American culture as their own. DREAM Scholars & Colleagues hopes to inform and provide awareness of this cause to UW-Whitewater and the surrounding community. We hope to coordinate social activities, plan fundraisers, administrate scholarships, and become politically involved. (Volunteer & Service)

- Ducks Unlimited
  This organization is an international non-profit organization that conserves, restores, and manages wetlands and associated habitats for North America’s waterfowl. These habitats also benefit other wildlife and people. As a university organization, they provide hands on and professional experiences that members can use both in the classrooms and in the field. (Volunteer & Service)

- Dungeons and Dragons
  Also known as the DnD Club, they are open to any students interested on campus. This club serves as a meeting point for anyone interested or has already been into the game. (Hobbies & Interests)
- Ecology Club
  Ecology Club is open to all majors. They volunteer with the Wisconsin DNR and other conservation groups, bring in professionals to speak, and trips of varying destinations and duration. Their goal is to provide valuable connections and experiences within the field of ecology for all members. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Economics Society
  Econ Society is designed for students with interests in the economics field, they strive to educate their members on opportunities in economics and economics related fields. Members include econ majors, minors, and individuals interested in things like Finance, Math, and Statistics. In the past they have hosted special event speakers from PhD candidates to retired Federal Reserve employees. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Education Innovation Technology
  Education Innovation Technology or also known as EdIT is an organization that explores and discusses the developing overlap of education, technology and playfulness in the classroom with students. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Empower
  The organization focuses on assisting and empowering both the local and global communities through a variety of volunteer and service events. Each year, they provide their members the opportunity to earn a solid number of community service hours, through events such as Adopt-A-Highway, food drives, Project Linus, and a number of other events. They also provide people access to long-term solutions to poverty through the website KIVA, where they provide loans to people around the world for variety of things, such as supplies for their family’s store, receiving an education, food for their farm animals, etc. Their organization is always looking to expand, and is very welcoming of students of all majors, ages, and diverse backgrounds. (Volunteer & Service)

- Enactus
  This organization focuses on creating and carrying out projects to help produce a more sustainable community, economy and environment. Open to all students engaging each individual to help people outside of campus and even outside of the United States. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- English Club
  A love for reading, many students who join this club enjoy to read, write and talk about all things related to English. All majors are welcome to participate. (University & Departmental)

- Fantasy Sports and Finance
  A student group that strives to educate and involve members in fantasy sports and stock leagues by provoking debate and discussion of the valuation of investments and professional athletes. Combining a growing hobby with a lucrative career path, the group provides members with entertainment, education and networking opportunities through meetings, socials and field trips. Members get a unique college organization experience. (Hobbies & Interests)

- FBLA-Phi Beta Lambda
  This an organization that welcomes all to join. There is opportunities, fun, networking, competition and socializing involved. Many other chapters of this organization is spread out across the state of Wisconsin. Participating in community service is also a part of the organization along with promoting leadership and personal responsibility. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Fearless United
  Fearless United seeks to create an inclusive environment, teach the community about intersectional practices, and engage in community activism. (Culture & Diversity)

- Fellowship of Christian Athletes
  Their main goal is to support one and other as brothers and sisters in Christ! They know that college is a major transition for students and student-athletes, and FCA presents the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord during this time. Minister to ALL students, not just athletes, on campus. They want to see the world impacted for Jesus Christ through the influence of coaches, athletes, and all athletic minded individuals. Come join, enjoy and share Christ's love while having some fun in the process. (Faith-Related)

- Filmmaking Club
  The UW-Whitewater Film Making Club is a collection of students dedicated to the creation of content in the medium of film. From documentaries to skits and even short films, the UW-Whitewater Film Making club is committed to teaching students how to hone their skills through collaboration and creativity. Every idea is welcome. (News & Media)

- Finance Association
  Finance Association is an organization dedicated towards students who are interested in the field of finance with the intent to expose and grow our members professionally and personally. Not only are students exposed to a wide range of professionals and topics (i.e. investing, real estate, insurance, career planning, etc.) within the finance field, but students will also be exposed to ideas and material not always taught in a classroom setting. The best part is, you do not need to be a Finance major to join! Any student is welcome to become a member and gain the value that comes with joining a student organization. (University & Departmental)

- First Warhawks in Flight
  This organization focuses on helping and engaging first generation students entering into college become successful academically and socially at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. (Culture & Diversity)

- Flute Club

- Forensics
  The University of Wisconsin-Forensics program is a competitive collegiate speech team. The program is a recognized student organization and is open to all UW-Whitewater undergraduate students. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Freedom Force
  Freedom Force is a student organization bonding together to fight against human trafficking in its various form. Through their partnership with International Justice Mission and Love 146, they intend to raise awareness about the issue. They are actively involved throughout campus by planning events with the hopes of raising knowledge about trafficking and engage in conversations with students and faculty on campus. The organization is also involved throughout Wisconsin through community service and volunteering with various other organizations. (Volunteer & Service)

- French Society
  The main goal of this organization is to provide students with the opportunity to experience French language and Francophone cultures outside of the classroom. The organization offers a variety of cultural and language events. They also support the relationship between all French students and the French honor society on campus, Pi Delta Phi. (Culture & Diversity)

- Future Teacher Student Organization
  FTSO is a student organization that is committed to the empowerment of future teachers to make a difference in the lives of their future students, their communities, and the world at large through on-going professional development and participation in transformation learning experiences. (Hobbies & Interests)

- GAMED

- Game Zombie

- Game and Media Entertainment Developers
  Also known as GAMED, this student organization gives creative people of all areas and skills a central place to make games. Whether you are a developer, designer, programmer, artist, musician, audio technician or just interested in getting behind the scenes of video games. They build teams to collaborate on projects, help and support each other grow in personal endeavors and put on periodic events such as game jams and charity gamethons to give opportunities to add to their resume and pursue their gaming goals. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Gaming Group of Whitewater
  Gaming group of Whitewater is a tabletop gaming club and welcomes everyone to join them during their once a week meet-up to relax, have fun and meet new people who shares the same interest. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Gamma Theta Upsilon
  An honorary society for Geography, Geology and Environmental Science majors who completed at least three semesters of full-time college course work and at least three courses in geography. Abbreviated as GTU, this honor society has minimum GPA requirements for all courses and geography course work to receive an invitation to join. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Gardening Club
  An organization that came onto campus during the 2016-2017 school year. The organization meet up to learn about the necessary skills to grow organic food at the UW-W campus garden or the Upham Hall Greenhouse. (Volunteer & Service)

- General Management Organization
  The purpose of this organization shall be to provide an opportunity for people affiliated or interested in field of General Management to learn about, and become prepared for their professional career. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Geography Association
  WGA is a student run campus organization for Geography and other Earth Science enthusiasts that promotes learning and camaraderie through fun events and fundraising opportunities. They work alongside the other Geo-science clubs (WeatherHawks and the Geological Society of Whitewater) to conduct and encourage community outreach, departmental involvement, and student networking. They annually host the Geography Department Picnic, Baseball/Bowling tourney against the History Club, Fall Ethnic Dinner, and an End-of-Year trip to a national park or other major geography-related attraction. All majors welcome! (Academic, Honors & Research)

- German Club
  Learn German language and experience German culture in a fun, social setting! Come enjoy their meetings and events, whether you're in a German class or are just interested in German culture. (Culture & Diversity)

- Golden Key International Honour Society
  At Golden Key, they are more than good students; they are scholars who make the top 15% of the university. Believing in the power of knowledge to transform lives and change situations for the better. They enjoy academic challenges and strive for excellence in their fields. They are not bookish; they are learned. Since it was established, Golden Key has recognized more than 12 million undergraduate and graduate students for their intellectual achievements. In addition, their Society has awarded $10 million in scholarships and awards to members in all fields of study. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Gospel Choir
  UWW Gospel Choir is an organization/class that lets you experience an amazing way to get a musical feel of the Gospel. They have many performances that they go to and have lots of fun with them. The choir meets every Thursday at 6:30pm in room 30 in the CA. (Arts & Performance)

- Graduate Student Counseling Association
  Abbreviated as GSCA, this is a professional student organization for UW-Whitewater Counselor Education students. All counselor education students, regardless or credit accumulation or GPA, may become a member of GSCA, participate in GSCA events and receive GSCA support and correspondence. (University & Developmental)

- Habitat for Humanity
  Habitat for Humanity is a nonprofit, ecumenical Christian-based housing ministry. HFH seeks to eliminate poverty housing and homelessness from the world, and to make decent affordable shelter a matter of consciousness and action. (Volunteer & Service)

- Harmonizing Hawkettes
  The Harmonizing Hawkettes is an all-women's a capella group. They sing a vast array of modern arrangements and hold auditions every semester. (Arts & Performance)

- Hawkappella
  The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater's first, co-ed, student-led a cappella choir. (Arts & Performance)

- Helping Hands
  The purpose of Helping Hands is to help the people and animals in the community through volunteer work. Helping Hands also provides the students of our campus with animal and people skills. (Volunteer & Service)

- Homecoming Steering Committee
  The Homecoming Steering Committee is a volunteer group of students and staff to create the annual undergraduate homecoming week activities. Homecoming is an activity that is enjoyed by both current students and alumni. (University & Departmental)

- Honors Student Association
  Honors Student Association is the social aspect of the University Honors Program. HSA has monthly meetings, social outings, and opportunities for service learning. Their organization provides an opportunity for Honors students to interact with one another outside of the classroom and have fun! (Academic, Honors & Research)

- I AM THAT GIRL
  Their vision, a girl's physical, emotional and mental well-being is rooted in her self-worth. And is living in an epidemic of self-doubt. I AM THAT GIRL is helping girls to transform self-doubt in to self-love by providing a safe space to be lifted up and have honest conversations about things that matter. Every day, girls are bombarded with messages that attack what she is NOT and they work every day to help her love who SHE IS; to see that in herself and inspire that in others. They’ve seen limitless possibility when girls collaborate instead of compete and contribute as much as they consume. By creating a culture for girls to be seen, be heard, and belong, they are changing their lives and creating a healthier, more powerful world. (Culture & Diversity)

- Ignite Ministry & Bible Study
  Ignite is a weekly bible study led by students of the Christian faith who are from predominately African-American backgrounds who recognize their dependence upon Christ daily and that students’ life with Christ is a lifelong process and not something that is immediately attained. (Faith-Related)
• IMPACT
IMPACT is a student organization for all students and faculty/staff members of all gender expressions, sexual identities, and romantic identities at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. IMPACT will serve as a safe, confidential, and open space for discussion, support, and activism for LGBT* students and their allies. IMPACT will also provide education and awareness LGBT* issues for IMPACT members, the UW-Whitewater student body, faculty and staff. IMPACT shall not discriminate based on race, religion, gender, gender expression, sexual identity, age, class, or ability. * No single acronym will capture the diversity of identities related to sexual orientation, gender identity, and their intersections. A sample of related terms includes queer, questioning, genderqueer, pansexual, two-spirit, same gender loving, fluid, intersex, asexual, etc. (Culture & Diversity)

• Institute of Management Accountants
The Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) is the premier professional organization devoted exclusively to management accounting, finance, and office systems professionals. They have speaker meetings on Mondays at 6:30PM in Hyland Hall. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Interfraternity Council
The governing body for fraternal organizations on campus including but limited to those that fall under the North-American Interfraternity Conference. (Fraternity & Sorority Community)

• International Business Club
To give students of all majors and ethnicity the opportunity to be introduced to the world of international business through guest speakers, trips, workshops, conferences, and group events to facilitate the acquisition of knowledge of business practices while promoting and encouraging culture. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• International Student Association
ISA wants to get international students exposed to American culture and people while celebrating their own cultures. They want to create a place where students can make new friends from around the world and feel at home. (Culture & Diversity)

• InterVarsity Christian Fellowship
The Purpose of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA is to establish and advance at colleges and universities witnessing communities of students and faculty who follow Jesus as Savior and Lord: growing in love for God, God's Word, God's people of every ethnicity and culture and God's purposes in the world. InterVarsity provides opportunities to fellowship and have fun with other students through large group meetings (Epic), small groups, prayer meetings, socials, and numerous other opportunities. In all they do, they strive to show that Jesus is King. (Faith-Related)

• Investment Group

• Japanese Anime Culture Society
Enjoy a whole semester of nonstop anime selected by students. Anime not your thing? That's okay, bring your games to enjoy with friends and club members. The organization greatly encourage conversations with other people in the club so that students may have new friends introduced to you. This is the place where everyone can all enjoy a similar hobby or interest. (Hobbies & Interests)

• Japanese Language and Culture Club
JLC teaches about the culture and language of Japan. Here, members have the opportunity to participate and share what they know about Japan. (Culture & Diversity)

• Jazz Education Network
The Jazz Education Network is dedicated to building the jazz arts community by advancing education, promoting performance, and developing new audiences. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Jewish Student Organization
This is an organization for anyone who is interested in Judaism, its traditions, and the religious implications that are associated. (Faith-Related)

• Jugglers
An organization in which brings together people with the interest in juggling hobbies such as Poi, Kendama, Yoyo, Hooping, etc. in order to practice their trade as well as teach newcomers about the creative culture of juggling hobbies. (Hobbies & Interests)

• Kappa Delta Pi - Delta Nu Chapter
Kappa Delta Pi (KDP), International Honor Society in Education, was founded in 1911 to foster excellence in education and promote fellowship among those dedicated to teaching. For over a century, the Society has consistently grown, starting with a local chapter to become the international organization it is today, with an initiated membership that exceeds 1.2 million! Mission Kappa Delta Pi strives to sustain an honored community of diverse educators by promoting excellence and advancing scholarship, leadership, and service. The Vision Kappa Delta Pi desires to help committed educators be leaders in improving education for global citizenship. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Korean Language Club

  Korean Language Club is opened to all students who are interested in learning about the language and culture of Korea. (Culture & Diversity)

- Latinos Unidos

  Latinos Unidos strives to unite the Latinos on campus and UW-W community, by supporting and assisting them to work together as ONE. They promote Culture, Unity, Education and Political Awareness. (Culture & Diversity)

- Law Enforcement Organization

  This organization is also known as LEO. LEO is for any students interested in learning more about the study of criminology, or the professional of law enforcement along with other professions involving criminology, or any student interested in meeting and connecting with other student interested in the subject. The org also provides valuable educational and networking opportunities for students interested in law enforcement, corrections, probation and parole, forensics, and any other career related to criminal justice. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Law Society

  The Purpose of Law Society here on campus is to provide an abundance of resources for undergraduates who are interested or planning on pursuing a career in Law. Their organization provides law school visits, meet and greet with Law professionals, weekly meetings that provide resourceful knowledge on various fields of Law, assisting with taking/registering LSAC applying for Law School and finding funding. (Politically Affiliated)

- League of Legends Club

  The organization provides a safe and fun environment for students to come together and play the game League of Legends. They are sponsored by Riot Games and have regular giveaways, viewing parties, and tournaments. All skill levels are welcome! (Hobbies & Interests)

- LEAPers

  Student L.E.A.P is a University of Wisconsin-Whitewater student organization that helps the further prepare college students for life after college. The purpose of this organization is to increase skills, attitudes, and abilities of students that will push them further in life. By doing so, the mission of this organization is to mold a student or adult into a well-rounded person, by helping prepare them or life after college. They will gain skills and attitudes that are appealing to those in the professional world. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- LGBT* Peer Educator Program

  The LGBT* Peer Education Program provides a unique professional development opportunity for students, faculty and staff to learn more about the LGBT* community. The Peer Educators are a group of highly knowledgeable LGBT* and dedicated ally students who receive extensive training in cross-cultural communication, presentation skills and facilitation. They are available to explain complex LGBT* concepts and their day-to-day personal, professional, campus and classroom experiences in an accessible way. (University & Departmental)

- Life on Campus

  Their mission is to make euthanasia, infanticide, abortion and destruction of human embryos socially, ethically and legally unacceptable solutions to human problems and to promote positive alternatives to each of these acts. (Culture & Diversity)

- Love Your Melon

  This organization spends their time spreading awareness about pediatric cancer and selling Love Your Melon gear. They are able to make a difference in the lives of children battling cancer by supporting organizations that donate to help fund pediatric cancer research initiatives and provide immediate support for families. They are also able to donate hats in person to children in both household and hospital donations. This organization used to be known as TEAM on campus when it was first starting out. (Volunteer & Service)

- Lutheran Episcopal Campus Ministry

  They have several activities throughout the school year. Spaghetti Dinners are on Mondays at 5:00 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. at 146 S. Church St. They are always looking for volunteers where students can schedule by email. They also have a Theological discussion on Tuesdays at 5:00 p.m. in the UC. They also meet for a faith based service on Wednesdays at 12:00 p.m. in the UC. On Thursdays they have different activities that are fun such as bowling or game night for example. (Faith-Related)

- Mixed Race Student Union
The purpose of the Mixed-Race Student Union (MXD) is to create a space for individuals who identify as biracial/multiracial/mixed race/multi-ethnic/transracial adoptees, and/or aspiring allies and advocates for mixed race students. Additionally, the purpose of MXD is to promote multiracial awareness at UW-Whitewater through education, support, and social events. (Culture & Diversity)

- Moving Onward to Disability Empowerment

  Also known as MODE, this organization helps to foster an awareness of the needs of students with disabilities, foster an atmosphere of mutual understanding and cooperation between committees and to be service oriented with primary emphasis of the needs of students with disabilities. (Culture & Diversity)

- MTG

  A student organization for the Magic the Gathering collectible card game. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Multicultural Affairs & Student Success

  Multicultural Affairs and Student Success serves African American, Latino/a, Native American, and South East Asian students with varying academic needs. Services include: academic advising, support services, scholarships, Study Abroad, Pre-college initiatives, remedial courses in math and academic survival skills, free tutoring, and more! (Culture & Diversity)

- Muse

  The Muse is UW-Whitewater’s official literary and arts magazine. They publish students’ poetry, prose, photography, and artwork in an annual issue that comes out at the end of the spring semester. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Music Co-Op

  They aim to give students a hands on experience with all aspects of the music industry (running live sound, organizing concerts, advertising & promotions, in-studio recording) and to foster a supportive community of diverse musical talent and performance art among the UWW student population. (Arts & Performance)

- Muslim Student Association

  Bring Muslims community together and educate people on Islam. (Culture & Diversity)

- National Association for Music Education

  The National Association for Music Education is a student organization for students who are interested in teaching music. The purpose of this organization is to advocate for music education at a local, state, and national level. Locally, the Whitewater chapter provides volunteer, performance, and advocacy opportunities for music education student. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- National Association of Black Accountants

  The mission of NABA, Inc. is to address the professional needs of its members and to build leaders that shape the future of the accounting and finance profession with an unaltering commitment to inspire the same in their successors. The Association shall unite through membership accountants, finance and business related professionals and students who have similar interests and ideals, are committed to professional and academic excellence, possess a sense of professional and civic responsibility, and are concerned with enhancing opportunities for minorities in the accounting, finance and business related professions. The goals of the Association include, but are not limited to, the following: - To promote and develop the professional skills of our members - To encourage and assist minority students entering the accounting profession - To provide opportunities for members to fulfill their civic responsibilities - To promote public confidence in our members and the services they provide - To encourage cordial relations among members and cooperative relationships with other professionals - To represent the interests of current and prospective minority accounting professionals - To ensure long-term financial stability and provide adequate resources to implement chapter, regional, and national programs. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- National Pan-Hellenic Council

  The National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) is a collaborative organization of nine historically African American, international Greek lettered fraternities and sororities. The nine NPHC organizations are sometimes collectively referred to as the “Divine Nine”. Currently, six of the nine NPHC groups exist at UW-Whitewater. (Fraternity & Sorority Community)

- National Residence Hall Honorary

  The National Residence Hall Honorary (hereafter known as NRHH) is a leadership-based honorary comprised of exemplary residential students who value recognition and service. (Residence Life)

- National Society for Leadership and Success

  We Build Leaders Who Make a Better World The Society is an organization that helps people discover and achieve their goals. The Society offers life-changing lectures from the nation’s leading presenters and a community where like-minded, success-oriented individuals come together and help one another succeed. The Society also serves as a powerful force of good in the greater community by encouraging and organizing action to better the world. (Academic, Honors & Research)
• National Student Speech Language Hearing Association

NSSLHA is the national organization for graduate and undergraduate students interested in the study of normal and disordered human communication. This Organization is for students who are pursuing academic study as speech-language pathology assistants, students pursuing a doctorate of philosophy or doctorate of audiology, as well as students enrolled in a Communicative Sciences and Disorders (CSD) program at University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Native American Cultural Awareness Association

UW-Whitewater’s Native American Cultural Awareness Association (NACAA) comes together to learn about Native American Culture. They accept all people who are willing to learn more and enjoy some fun events that they have planned. (Hobbies & Interests)

• Navigators

The Navigators students won’t last long around The Navigators without hearing their motto, “To know Christ and to make him known.” Since 1933, under founder Dawson Trotman, The Navigators has been doing exactly that: multiplying disciples around the globe. Now The Navigators has 22 ministry branches, including ministries on 175+ university campuses, and missionaries in 100+ countries. About The Navigators: Digital Brochure Collegiate Navigators: www.campusnavs.org At The Navigators’ national website: Who We Are @UW-Whitewater The student chapter of The Navigators at UWW has been living and sharing the gospel on campus for over forty years. What sets us apart as a ministry is a strong emphasis on spiritual transformation through the practice of spiritual disciplines (like Scripture memory and prayer) in relationships of spiritual mentoring, all with a view to pass it on to the next generation (2 Timothy 2:2). We’re a community of people (we prefer to call it a family) seeking to encourage each other to know Jesus Christ and make Him known. Vision and Mission Vision: To advance the Gospel of Jesus and His Kingdom into the nations through spiritual generations of laborers living and disciplining among the lost. Mission: To glorify God by fruitfully evangelizing, establishing, equipping, and exporting students for Christ from the UW-Whitewater community. Statement of Faith (& more) Statement of Faith The Press Room (Linked to The Navigators’ national website) Speaking Of.... “On a scale of one to ten, I place The Navigators as a ‘ten’ among para-church ministries today. In my college days, The Navigators taught me the value of a disciplined life. In our Crusades, they developed the unsurpassed follow-up methods we use today. Thank God for The Navigators.” — Billy Graham (Faith-Related)

• Order of Omega

Order of Omega is an organization that has been recognizing Greek leaders since 1959. Juniors and seniors in a sorority or fraternity are welcome to apply. (Fraternity & Sorority Community)

• Order of Snitches and Witches

They are the Harry Potter club. They have a festival every year where you can learn, discuss, and interact with Harry Potter themes. We also host a ball or end of year feast where the house cup is presented. Attend a meeting or one of our events to be sorted into your house. Every time you attend after that earns your house a point! So come, have fun, and have a chance to win prizes! (Hobbies & Interests)

• Pagan Spirituality Student Organization

This organization is an eclectic non-denominational Pagan spiritualist group providing a safe place for Pagans and others who are interested to meet, learn, grow, and socialize. They do not teach paths specifically, but show others their ways and help them find their own. They welcome people from all faiths in the opportunity to learn and become aware of the different kinds of traditions around us. (Faith-Related)

• Paintball Club

Established in 1999, the UW-Whitewater Paintball Club has grown from only playing traditional paintball in the woods, to incorporating tournament style paintball into their program, known as speedball. With the new format being played and a continual growth in membership, the club has become more organized than ever. The Whitewater Paintball Club has been one of the top competitors in the nation for the last 7 years and intends to keep the legacy going. The Paintball Club won the AA National Championship in the spring of 2009 and is looking to win again in upcoming years. The club is currently ranked 9th nationwide. (Athletics, Club Sports, & Intramural)

• Panhellenic Council

The Panhellenic Council (PHC) at the UW-Whitewater consists of five sororities. PHC nurtures community, leadership, academics, sisterhood and service throughout the campus Greek Community. (Fraternity & Sorority Community)

• Parkour Club

They maintain a positive, helpful, socially responsible community of parkour practitioners on campus who thrive on teaching parkour movements and ethics to students and others in the Whitewater community, and training together in the spirit of the discipline. New members are not required to have any previous experience to join. (Health & Fitness)

• Pathway Club

1) To promote academic success. 2) To provide fellowship among students and faculty. 3) To foster an environment to address the needs and wants of students. 4) To provide a forum for students to benefit the University community. 5) Volunteering opportunities (Volunteer & Service)
• P.E.A.C.E.

  Peace, Education, Activism through Creative Engagement is a nonpartisan activist group that works on various issues related to social, environmental and political rights. They also do community service work as well as fun charity events. (Volunteer & Service)

• Phi Alpha Honor Society

  This honor society is focus on students who have Social Work as their declared major. Their purpose is to provide a closer bond among students of social work and promote humanitarian goals and ideas. Phi Alpha fosters high standards of education for social workers and invites into membership those who have attained excellence in scholarship and achievement in social work. Their motto is “Through knowledge—the challenge to serve.” (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Phi Alpha Theta

  Nu Beta Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta at UW-Whitewater. Phi Alpha Theta is a honor society for undergraduate and graduate students and professors of history. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Phi Eta Sigma National Honor Society

  Phi Eta Sigma is the nation's oldest and largest honor society for first-year college and university students in all disciplines. Their mission is to encourage and reward academic excellence among freshmen in institutions of higher learning. Membership is by invitation only. With only freshmen who achieve a 3.5 GPA or higher during their first year on campus are extended an invitation. Their national website can be found at www.phietasigma.org (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Philosophy Club

  The UWW-Philosophy Club is a group dedicated to encouraging philosophical thought, and serve as an outlet for rational discussion amongst peers. All discussion is democratically chosen, and no matter where the discussion goes the objective is to have fun! (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Pi Omega Pi

  Founded in 1923, this honor society honors scholars who have a professed interest in Business Education and have attained a consistent record of academic achievement. Membership distinguishes students on top among peers and as a top candidate for prospective employers. The UW-Whitewater Chapter was founded in 1934, and fostered by internationally renowned professor, Paul A. Carlson. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Pi Sigma Epsilon

  Also known as PSE, they are the only national, professional fraternity for men and women in the fields of sales, marketing and management. While these business fields are their focus, they are opened to all majors. PSE gives its members the opportunity to gain hands-on experience, participate in conferences both regionally and nationally, and network with top executives through PSE’s corporate partners. Though having a Greek name, they are a professional fraternal organization versus a social fraternity. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Pre Health Associates of Today

  The Pre Health Associates of Today strive to better prepare you in your journey towards becoming a medical professional in the health care field. They are open to any student interested in a career path towards becoming a medical professional. Their goal is to assist students in the graduate school application process as well as provide them with a chance to get involved with health care field volunteer opportunities they might not be aware of. Their hope is that by attending our organization students will be able to solidify their interest in pursuing a career in the healthcare field, as well as be able to navigate the process of becoming a medical professional. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Pre-Veterinary Club

  Open to all students, this is an organization where students can come learn about what it means to be a veterinarian and how to get there. Students will learn how the application process works. They will discuss the VMCAS website, letters of recommendation, experience, personal statements and more! They want to prepare students for their dream of saving the lives of animals in the future. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Printmaker's Association

  Students with an interest in printmaking are welcome to join. There is no requirement for printmaking experience. All majors are welcome, but most of the current members are art majors or minors. Their goal is to help explain and demonstrate the art of printmaking, and support the students who have an interest in pursuing it. It is the most traditional form of graphic design as well as a widespread art form. (Arts & Performance)

• Professional Writing Core

  The Professional Writing Core is an organization to give students the opportunity to get experience in the field of professional writing and editing, as well as learn more about the field. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Psychology Club/Psi Chi

  A student run organization that value what their members want to learn, who they want to hear speak and where they want to volunteer.
Every year the organization work towards attending the Midwestern Psychological Association conference in Chicago. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Public History Club
  The purpose of the Public History Club is to help connect students with a common educational interest, professional interest, and leisure interest as well. They hope to foster those students ability to be better professionals in the field of history, both public and academic, and to present them with the opportunity to grow their connections both on and off campus. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Public Relations Student Society of America
  The Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) is the foremost organization for students interested in public relations and communications. They seek to advance the public relations profession by nurturing generations of future professionals. They advocate rigorous academic standards for public relations education, the highest ethical principles and diversity in the profession. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Purple Jam
  A chorale group that students apply to be apart. Their singing ranges from soprano, alto, tenor, baritone and bass. (Arts & Performance)

- Purple Reign
  Purple Reign is an organization aimed to encourage Warhawks to attend athletic events and cheer on their athletes. (Athletics, Club Sports, & Intramural)

- Residence Hall Association
  The Residence Hall Association is an organization established to promote interaction among residence halls. In order to achieve this purpose, RHA provides services and activities for the benefit of the residents. RHA is here to represent the residents in UWW Residence Halls, bring leadership and programs to foster community and to provide social, cultural, and intellectual development. They also review and uphold University housing policies and procedures and act as a link between administration and the residents. RHA feels that by doing this, communication and cooperation between the residence halls and other university organizations will formulate maximum representation of the residence hall students. (Residence Life)

- Second Salem Paranormal Investigation Team
  The purpose of this organization is to seek the truth about common urban legends and myths as well as to investigate the claims of paranormal activity within the area of Whitewater. It is the goal of this organization to spread awareness and to educate others of the paranormal and supernatural world as well as to have discussions on these topics. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Secular Student Alliance
  They are a branch of the Secular Student Alliance. Here at Whitewater they serve the purpose of educating about secularism and advocating the Separation of Church and State. They keep open discussions and maintain a social setting for people who are atheists, agnostics, humanists. (Culture & Diversity)

- Segregated University Fee Allocation Committee
  Take a look at a student bill sometime. Ever notice the line at the bottom that says "student segregated fees"? What does that mean? These are the fees that fund a number of the activities, programs, and student organizations on campus. That's the 'SUF', but what about the 'AC'? It stands for Allocation Committee, the committee that decides how those segregated university fees are spent. The committee consists of nine students; one from each of the UW-Whitewater colleges, three from Whitewater Student Government (WSG), and one from the Residence Hall Association, and two staff advisors; one from Student Affairs and the other from the Budget Office. Together they review Segregated University Fee (SUF) requests, and submit a budget to Whitewater Student Government, the Chancellor, and ultimately the UW System Board of Regents to approve. In order to utilize these funds, you will need to submit a Segregated University Fee (SUF) budget request to SUFAC for review and approval. (Governance & Committees)

- Service Opportunities
  Looking to find service opportunities on or off campus? Here's the place to start! Visit us on Facebook as we are constantly adding new service opportunities! (Volunteer & Service)

- Sigma Alpha Lambda
  They strive to promote academic excellence and achievement, while engaging in community service and building leadership. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Sigma Iota Epsilon
  An honorary management fraternity that encourages and recognizes scholastic excellence while promoting cooperation between the academic and practical aspects of management. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Ski and Snowboard
They are a club sport that works together to enjoy our passion. They take one big trip out west every year during winter break. They also take multiple trips to local resorts. Any student can join, even if they don't have any experience. (Athletics, Club Sports, & Intramural)

Smash Bros Club
This organization is dedicated to bringing together everyone who enjoys Super Smash Bros. From old school Nintendo 64 or GameCube games, to the newest game for Wii U, they want to help the scene in UW-Whitewater grow to amazing new heights. Casual players who want to find some friends to play with or a competitive smasher looking to play in tournaments are welcome to join. (Hobbies & Interests)

Social Work Student Organization
The Social Work Student Organization (SWSO) is a student-run group that seeks to enrich the social work learning experience. Their officially stated purpose is to “promote the Social Work profession as an important and positive field that deserves recognition through Social Work education, community service, and campus awareness of social and political issues.” (Academic, Honors & Research)

Society for Human Resource Management
SHRM is an excellent organization on campus for any student to utilize as they become more involved in the major of Human Resource Management. SHRM has weekly meetings that are designed to provide their members with every opportunity possible to grow and gain valuable information. The meetings include: learning from speakers that have experience in various HR fields, being informed of scholarship opportunities, discussions that challenge and grow one's perspective on several HR topics, and working with other members in a supportive environment. (Academic, Honors & Research)

Society of Professional Journalist
A national organization for journalists. Open to any students on campus it consists of both professionals and collegiate chapters. (News & Media)

Sociology and Anthropology Student Association
SASA's main goal is to gain more knowledge and have hands-on experience in the fields of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminal Justice. Students do not need to be in these majors or minors to be involved in the group. SASA member meetings will be to discuss off-campus outings, on campus activities and community service. (Academic, Honors & Research)

Southeast Asian Organization
They are a southeast Asian interest group. Their mission is to promote unity, culture and education through activities, events, and fundraisers. Some of the events include eggroll fundraising, lock-ins at the Williams center, Culture show and much more. They are a very inclusive organization and are not limited to just Asians/ Southeast Asians. Their organization has a very strong sense of community and inclusion and encourage for everyone to join! (Culture & Diversity)

Spanish Club
The goal of Spanish Club is to get everyone that is interested in the language and culture involved from beginning speakers to those who are fluent. The organization want for students to come and be comfortable to practice Spanish in an accepting environment where they feel that they can grow. (Academic, Honors & Research)

Special Olympics College
SO College is a student run organization that allows UW- Whitewater students to connect with individuals with special needs from all over the South Eastern area of Wisconsin, through activities. The organization encourages athletes and members to connect as one, in hopes to create a positive experience for everyone involved. From sports activities, fundraising events and community involvement this student organization is fun for all! (Hobbies & Interests)

Student Art Association
SAA is recognized by the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater as an official non-academic organization open to all university students interested in the visual arts. It aims to expose students to the world of visual arts through student-run events and art opportunities. (Arts & Performance)

Student Athlete Advisory Committee
MISSION The primary mission of the SAAC is to enhance the NCAA student-athlete experience for UW-Whitewater student-athletes at the institution, conference, and national level. This body serves as a forum for student-athlete voice. The primary roles of this organization are to: (a) vote on NCAA legislation; (b) facilitate opportunities for student-athlete personal, social, and community engagement; and (c) coordinate Warhawks Outreach events for UW-Whitewater athletics. This group works in tandem with the Warhawks Leadership Academy’s Veteran Warhawks program. (Athletics, Club Sports, & Intramural)

Student Conduct Board
An integral part of the residence hall communities. The Conduct Board listens to the information from both sides of an alleged violation of community standards and renders a decision of either not-responsible or responsible. The Conduct Board receives extensive training throughout the year. (Residence Halls)

Student Foundation
• Student Health Advisory Committee
  Also known as SHAC, this is an advisory committee made up of diverse, caring and energetic students who serve to promote and ensure the quality of the health care at UW-Whitewater. Because of the diversity of the student population, SHAC helps to represent an equal range of members from various backgrounds and interests. (University & Departmental)

• Student Math Association
  SMA is a student run organization to help math majors and minors see what possibilities there are for them during undergraduate and after graduation. They aim to have fun while building connections with other students and faculty. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Student Optimist Club
  Hands-on, positive minded group that works with youth and the community. (Volunteer & Service)

• Student Org for Urban Teaching
  They exist to identify, prepare, and support high performing urban educators. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Student Undergraduate Research Organization
  They are an Organization connected directly to the Undergraduate Research Program. By supporting undergraduate students who are new to research and may need help with developing a project, grant writing, poster creation, and even with dealing with academic stress. They also present workshops for new students as well as providing information on opportunities for internships and research experience. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• Student Wisconsin Education Association
  SWEA is comprised of students who are considering becoming future educators. Their meetings include information on current education topics, tests future educators need to take, preparation tools, College of Education, activities to be used in classroom, and anything else education related. They are also proud to support our Whitewater schools in fundraising, programs, and in our volunteer service. They have bi-weekly meetings, socials, volunteer opportunities, and much more! (Volunteer & Service)

• Students Allied for a Green Earth
  They are Students Allied for a Green Earth (S.A.G.E.) who promote ecological sustainability and awareness, democracy, cultural diversity, and social justice at UW-Whitewater, in the Whitewater, WI community, and on a global level. (Hobbies & Interests)

• Supporting a Violence-Free Environment
  A student run organization at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater that provides education related to sexual assault, dating violence, stalking, and harassment, and promotes healthy relationships. (Volunteer & Service)

• The Odyssey
  UW-Whitewater students write one article a week on whatever they want onto the popular website, The Odyssey under as a UW-Whitewater affiliate. (Hobbies & Interests)

• The Student National Association of Teachers of Singing
  A student chapter that is also known as S-NATS, encourages high standards of singing and pedagogy. Members participate in national, state and regional competitions. The chapter promotes opportunities to work with professionals through master classes and seminars. S-NATS welcomes any student interested in the advancement of healthy and expressive singing. (Arts & Performance)

• Theta Alpha Phi
  UW-Whitewater's professional honorary theatre fraternity. They work to Forward the Theatrical Achievement of the students in the Theatre/Dance Department https://www.uww.edu/theatre-dance. They are open to any and all theatre majors and minors of sophomore standing or higher. (Academic, Honors & Research)

• TIFU Cultural Ensemble
  The purposes of TIFU shall be the organization, management, promotion and support of African American arts and related programs. Its activities shall be primarily educational, literary and artistic in nature. (Hobbies & Interests)

• Together Everyone Achieves More
  They are a service club dedicated to having all members feel as though they are part of a team through completing service projects. (Volunteer & Service)

• TOMS Campus Club
  The mission of TOMS campus club is to promote the TOMS “One for One Movement” on campus and raise awareness about the need for shoes and the importance of eyesight around the world. (Volunteer & Service)
• Transhumanist Association
The goal of Transhumanist Association is to support awareness and discussion of emerging technologies, to defend the right of individuals in free and democratic societies to adopt technologies that expand human capacities, and to anticipate the potential consequences of emerging technologies as well as propose possible solutions to these consequences. (News & Media)

• Turning Points USA
The mission of Turning Point USA at UW-Whitewater is to educate students about the importance of fiscal responsibility, free markets and limited government. Through non-partisan debate, dialogue and discussion. This organization is open to any student attending at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater and strives to educates every young person to be enlightened to true free market values. (Politically Affiliated)

• ULEAD
The ULEAD program is for incoming students and is designed to jump start their collegiate involvement and success. (University & Departmental)

• United Link
This organization promotes academic excellence, fellowship among students and faculty, and a forum for students to benefit the University community. They also foster an environment to address the needs and wants of students while striving to find volunteering opportunities. (Volunteer & Service)

• University Health and Counseling Services
Their mission is to help UWW students build the foundation for lifelong learning and wellness by providing high quality physical and mental health care, outreach and consultation for the diverse campus community. (University & Departmental)

• University of Wisconsin-Whitewater Law Enforcement Organization
LEO is an organization for any student interested in learning more about the study of criminology, or the profession of law enforcement along with other professions involving criminology, or any student interested in meeting and connecting with other student interested in the subject. (Hobbies & Interests)

• UW-W Women in Economics
Women in Economics is devoted to providing an open environment to everyone interested in the field of economics. They are also invested in promoting involvement in the field of economics with a focus on the involvement of women. (Culture & Diversity)

• UW-Whitewater Officials Association
This organization give members the opportunity to expand their officiating horizons. They work closely with local high schools and organizations to find their members games to work. The main sports covered are basketball, baseball, and softball. They look forward to expanding the sports to others such as football, soccer, volleyball. (Athletics, Club Sports & Intramurals)

• UW-Whitewater Pokemon Club
UW-Whitewater Pokemon Club is a student run organization that is open to all students on campus who has a passion for the video game and anime series Pokemon.

• UW-Whitewater Sustainability Office
To encourage more sustainable lifestyle choices and getting students involved in community service projects that have a positive impact on the community's sustainability outcomes, the UW-Whitewater Sustainability Office engages students with projects and practices. Sustainability includes projects that addresses environmental, economic and social justice concerns in a way that provides a hands-on, co-curricular learning experience to build practical sustainable skills while contributing to a positive community impact. (Service)

• Veteran Servicemembers Organization
The purpose of the organization will be to conduct social, academic, informational and community services. The organization shall assist military and veteran students to adjust to campus and academic life, provide information on benefits, build moral, promote fellowship, and all other activities as deemed necessary by the organization (members, officers and advisers). (Culture & Diversity)

• Warhawk Ambassadors
Warhawk Ambassadors service provides opportunities to meet and interact with some of University of Wisconsin-Whitewater’s brightest young professionals from a variety of diverse backgrounds. (University & Departmental)

• Water Council
Awareness of water issues shall be promoted through education and events of the importance of “going blue.” (Hobbies & Interests)

• Weatherhawks
The WeatherHawks is a student ran organization that promotes learning and builds a network of weather and climate enthusiast. While the primary focus of those activities is on campus the group also promotes the activities throughout the Whitewater community through volunteer activities, guest lectures, and providing weather and climate related information through various social media outlets. (Academic, Honors & Research)
- WellHawks
  The purpose of this committee is to connect the students and campus efforts to the community with a focus on nutrition and physical activity initiatives. This committee will serve as a voice of the Whitewater student population on the W3 community coalition and will provide service, networking, and professional development opportunities. (Health & Fitness)

- WELS Campus Ministry
  They are a Lutheran based ministry. They have bible studies, play games and explore different biblical ideas. Learn more about God. Fellowship. (Faith-Related)

- Whitewater Bridge Club
  This organization offers education in the card game of bridge for students who play bridge as well as students who want to learn more how to play bridge. The main goals are to learn and understand how to play bridge, meet new people and to have fun! (Hobbies & Interests)

- Whitewater Brony Club
  Inviting many and any fans of the My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic to come out and join by having fun discussing about the show, fandom or talking about any other similar interests that students may have about the show. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Whitewater Film Society
  A premier club for cinemaphiles interested in discussing film, both old and new. They promote critical conversation, writing, and appreciation of movies. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Whitewater Investment Group
  WIG is a finance and accounting related student organization. It is open to all majors and all grade levels. They focus on teaching the members about the complicated world of investing. They use programs such MT4 and market watch to expand the knowledge of our members. WIG members will also have access to the Bloomberg lab located on the 2nd floor of Hyland to do their research. WIG also takes the top performing members to Chicago for free to tour some major firms. This provides a great opportunity for members to talk to recruiters and get a foot in the door of a firm of their choosing. WIG’s goal is to provide students with a basic understanding of the stock market to be able to comfortably make future investment and financial decisions. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Whitewater Model United Nations Association
  The Model UN is an organization where students act as representatives of different countries, they get together and discuss about global issues, either in the past, the present, or the future. They believe that this world is beautiful, but it also has problems, the world needs to be changed, and it is worthy to be changed. (Culture & Diversity)

- Whitewater Student Government
  Whitewater Student Government is a shared governance body of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. WSG aims to provide quality representation for the students of UW-Whitewater, by addressing issues or problems while working collaboratively to discover effective solutions. The members of WSG are dedicated to seeking out student input and continuing to work on enhancing the experiences of UW-Whitewater students. (Governance & Committees)

- Women in Accounting
  UW-Whitewater professional student org aimed at assisting women in the accounting program as they prepare for post-college activities and careers. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Writing Club
  This is an organization for writers and even people with only an interest in writing. No experience necessary. Open to everyone no matter the skill. (Hobbies & Interests)

- Young Americans for Liberty
  They are a non-partisan group that supports free-market economics, a non-interventionist foreign policy, an end to the War on Drugs, sound money, social acceptance, and personal responsibility. More freedom and less government. If students support Republicans, Democrats, or reject them both, there is a place for them in this organization! (Politically Affiliated)

- Youth Empowered in the Struggle
  Youth Empowered in the Struggle (YES) is a student-led, multicultural organization that struggles for the rights of students, immigrants, and workers as well as other social justice issues in the community. YES is the youth wing of Voces de la Frontera, the largest immigrant rights organization in Wisconsin. (Volunteer & Service)

- Zeta Mu FBLA-PBL
FBLA-PBL is an organization that promotes leadership, networking, and personal responsibility. We host speakers, go on business tours, participate in community service activities, attend leadership conferences, and encourage all students to join our organization. (Academic, Honors & Research)

- Zumba With Warhawks

  Hate going to the gym to work out? Well with Zumba with Warhawks, they can make students fall in love with working out! Come join them in a fun dancing environment where all students have to do is move and have fun! (Health & Fitness)

Source: https://orgsync.com/browse_orgs/796